

Come to this very interactive workshop that introduces an innovative, entertaining and a very lively way of teaching music to very young children.

The workshop is ideal for anyone, teacher, parent or music specialist with formal or no music background who are interested to teach music to young children.

Contents:

- Teaching the fundamentals of Early Childhood Music
- Achieving the SPARK accreditation in Music & Movement
- Making DIY music teaching aids
- Introducing magic to make music lessons lively and fun
- Learn the effective use of the “Jolly Music “program

At the end of the workshop participants will:

- Adopt a more innovative and imaginative approach to teaching
- Be able to motivate and inspire children to be more creative and responsive
- Have a better understanding of the aims, objectives and benefits of teaching music in the pre-school curriculum
- How to use the “Jolly Music” approach more effectively

Trainer: Thomas Tan

Thomas has a distinguished teaching with the Ministry of Education (MOE), Singapore as a Music Specialist. Trained in Paris, France he was awarded the ‘Diplome de Pegagogie Musicale’. He was appointed Head of the MOE Music Unit (Curriculum) and was the Assistant Director of CCA Music and has been instrumental in designing and developing the Music Curriculum for Primary and Secondary schools as well as the Syllabus for the Music Elective Programme (MEP) leading to the GCE “O” and “A” Level Music. Thomas was also involved with the formation of the Singapore National Youth Orchestra (SNYO), has lectured at the National Institute of Education (NIE), served in the committees of the National Arts Council (NAC), Nanyang Academy of Fine Arts (NAFA), La-Salle College of the Arts and other national and international bodies on the promotion of music and the arts. He holds a Master of Education and has also completed a Specialist Diploma in Pre-School Education (Teaching & Leadership). He was trained on Jolly Music and Jolly Phonics by Victoria Carlton, World No.1 Jolly Phonics trainer.

Comprehensive 3 hours training

Saturday 9th December 2017

9.30am – 12.45pm

Limited Early bird bonus gift is valid only for pre-payment by 15th Nov 2017

Comprehensive teaching notes and customized kit of ready-to-use apparatus and activities specially crafted by Mr Thomas Tan himself (priceless musical kit!)-Musical Kit is available on a first come first served basis

Course Fee FOS Member: $148.00 Non Member: $168.00